

Licensee Symbol Guidelines

Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) has created a Licensee Symbol for annual license customers who wish to publicize their status as a current CCC or RightsDirect licensee on their marketing materials. To use the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol, the customer must:

- Use the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol (which combines our logos with explanatory text) exactly as it appears in the file(s) provided.
- Have purchased and paid for a CCC or RightsDirect annual copyright license (ACL or MCL) covering the period of time during which it wishes to display the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol. Once the customer no longer has a current CCC or RightsDirect annual license, it must remove the Licensee Symbol immediately from any online materials and destroy any printed materials containing the Licensee Symbol. The CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol may not be used by customers who purchase a transactional (one-time) license from our website at marketplace.copyright.com or through any other third-party system that provides transactional licenses from CCC.
- Send a PDF or screenshot of the marketing content where the customer wishes to display the mark to branding@copyright.com for approval prior to use or display of the material which includes the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol. CCC will do its best to provide prompt review and approval of the use. Any change to the form of use or display must be re-submitted for approval.
- Follow the guidelines provided on the second (back) page of this document when using the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol.

Licensee Symbol Guidelines (cont'd)

Guidelines for Using the Licensee Symbol

- CCC or RightsDirect will provide the licensee a file of the Licensee Symbol.
- The file must be used in its entirety and may not be altered in any manner except to adjust sizing for page placement, or to display it in one-color, as specified below.
- A one-color logo is only acceptable when media reproduction is limited. In these cases, the logo may be reversed to white on a background that provides suitable contrast. A black logo is allowed when media reproduction is black only.
- The CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol is only to be used on informational or promotional materials to indicate that your organization is a licensee. It may not be used as part of any software, service or product offered by your company.
- The CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol may not be imitated or used as a design feature in any way.
- The CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol may not be used in a way that would disparage or misrepresent CCC or RightsDirect, the products, services or employees of either of them, or the relationship between your organization and CCC or RightsDirect.
- Neither the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol nor the CCC or RightsDirect names may be used in any other company name, product name, service name, domain name, website title, publication title, or the like. Nothing in these guidelines authorizes the use of CCC's or RightsDirect's name, of any of the trademarks or service names of either of them, or of the Licensee Symbol in any other way than as specifically stated.
- Non-CCC and non-RightsDirect materials should not mimic any CCC or RightsDirect advertising, web content or other marketing materials.

Each of CCC and RightsDirect reserves the right in its sole discretion to terminate or modify permission to display the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol and may request that you modify or delete any use of the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol that, in CCC's or RightsDirect's sole judgment, does not comply with these guidelines or might otherwise impair CCC's or RightsDirect's rights in their trademarks, service names or the CCC or RightsDirect Licensee Symbol. Each of CCC and RightsDirect further reserves the right to object to unfair uses or misuses of its trademarks or other violations of applicable law.
